

Staff | The Signal

Editorial / Production Office

Editor-in-Chief — Brianna Gunter

Brianna Gunter is a senior journalism and professional writing major with a minor in Spanish. She has been working for The Signal since her first semester, and has also written for a variety of websites and newspapers. Last year she studied abroad in Costa Rica and wrote a column about her travels. Brianna is also a member of Phi Sigma Sigma, works at the TCNJ library and takes part in an array of other campus activities. She also tames dragons— or she would, if they existed.

Managing Editor — Jamie Primeau

Jamie is a junior journalism and English major, with a minor in women's and gender studies. She began writing for The Signal as a freshman and spent the past two semesters as Features Editor. She's president of Ed@TCNJ and a community service chair for Women In Learning & Leadership. Over the past year she interned at her local newspaper (where she continues to write freelance) and in NYC at Cosmopolitan.

News Editors — Kelly Johnson, Tom Ciccone

Kelly Johnson is a junior Journalism major at The College of New Jersey. She has been writing for The Signal since her first semester and plans to continue to write and edit throughout her college career. In her free time, she enjoys volunteering, photography, and creating culinary masterpieces. After graduation, she aspires to live on a Christmas tree farm and write award-winning novels about old men and the sea while drinking endless amounts of wine.

Tom Ciccone was born in Monmouth Beach, New Jersey and is a sophomore at TCNJ. He is a studying journalist, News Editor for The Signal and a musician in his free time. Visit Tom's website at <http://www.tcnj.edu/~ciccont2>.

Sports Editor — Alex Wolfe

Alex Wolfe is a senior journalism major. He transferred from Raritan Valley Community College with an Associate's Degree in English and began writing for The Signal as a junior in the Fall 2010 semester. Since then, he has worked his way up from Sports Assistant to Sports Editor. Alex is very interested in sports and sports journalism and hopes to some day write as a beat writer for either the Mets or the Knicks, his two favorite teams. Alex also has the most awesome hats ever.

Features Editor — Brendan McGrath

Brendan McGrath is a junior economics major and journalism and WGS minor coming from Union, N.J. He loves to write, run, watch movies and share his tremendous fashion sense with the world. He also loves the Mets, but hey, everybody has baggage. In addition to his work with The Signal, Brendan spends a lot of his time planning events as a member of CUB. For him, the College is full of opportunities of all kinds, and he's always looking for a good story or a good time.

Arts & Entertainment Editor — Julia Corbett

Julia Corbett is a sophomore journalism major who hails from Bergen County and relentlessly asserts that New York City (a.k.a The City) is better than Philly, despite what friends and certain Signal staff members may contend. Julia loves to write, create, observe and travel. She is frequently working on something, whether it is for The Signal or for her position on the College Union Board. Julia is also co-vice president of Ed@TCNJ. Julia is always down for an adventure and is open to new opportunities.

Opinions Editor — Frank Orlich

Frank Orlich is a sophomore at The College of New Jersey pursuing a double major in Economics and Political Science. He (obviously) writes for and now edits The Signal, is a brother in Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and is a member of the Economics Club and College Republicans. Last summer, Frank interned with Societe Generale.

Nation & World Editor — Andrew Miller

Andrew Miller is a freshman physics and philosophy double major. He enjoys writing, reading, debate, science, and thinking about topics nobody ever seems to want to think about. He eventually wants to become the editor-in-chief of a science journal, or start his own. He has strong opinions on social issues and can be stubborn at times.

Nevertheless, he recognizes when he doesn't know what he's doing and concedes that he is very excited to learn a lot this semester!

Production Manager — Sydnee Weinbaum

Sydnee Weinbaum is a freshman at TCNJ and a Communication Studies major. She was the features editor of her high school paper and is looking forward to working on The Signal with the dedicated staff.

Business Office

Business Manager — Dan Lisi

Dan Lisi, a junior marketing major, has always had a strong drive for sales. Joining The Signal during the Fall 2011 semester, Dan has high hopes for the paper's outreach into the local community. Dan is also an avid musician and the VP of PR for TCNJ's chapter of Pi Sigma Epsilon, the premiere Marketing/Sales/Management fraternity.

Business Assistant — Natalie Schiavi

Natalie Schiavi is a sophomore marketing major. She became interested in journalism when she was in high school and became involved with the student newspaper. As a transfer student, joining The Signal has been a great way for Natalie to get involved on campus.

The Signal is also created with the help of its editorial and photo assistants, as well as the many staff writers, columnists, staff photographers and correspondents who work every week to deliver the news of The College of New Jersey community.
